This thorough-bred and beautiful HORSE, will stand the ensuing season at Queen Ann and Upper Marlborough, Prince George's County, Maryland, under the superintend ence of Mr. Baldwin. RATTLER is a chesnut, full 15 hands 31 inches high, with a remarkably fine, short, and glossy coat of hair, (the surest indication of high blood.) with strong, clean bone, great muscular power, and as symmetrical in form, and graceful and easy in action, as any horse in

The pedigree of RATTLER is short, and as rich as blood can make it. The following extract of a letter from James J. Harrson, Esq. (a gentleman well known to the racing world,) will satisfy even the most scrupulous of the purity of his blood:-

"RATTLER was sired by the celebrated race horse Timoleon, the best son of Archy, his dam by Constitu-tion, by Diomed, and out of the same of Timoleon --This mare was by the old imported Saltram, which was by ''Kelly's celebrated English Eclipse, his g g dam, Old Wildair, g g g dam, Fearnought, g g g g dam, Dri ver, g g g g g, the imported Vampire, g g g g g g Fal-low. He is of the stock of r Benjumin Jones, of Greensville. RATTLER has as much Diomed blood in him as any horse in the United States, and I believe partakes of more crosses - Constitution, by Diemed, he sire of his dam - Cimoleon, by Archy, by Diomed, his sire-all Mr. Jones' run-they stand No. 1 in the Cilendar of America. Timoleon. Kate, Aratus, Maid of Lodi, Snow Storm, Sally Walker, Sally McGee, and Many other fine racers, are of this stock. Your horse deserves to do well, for he is doubled and twisted in the same stock." [For particulars see bills. E. MASON.

Assessors' Notice.

THE undersigned intend forthwith to assess and value the taxable property of the citizens and others of the I own, and respectfully request their aid, as far as the annexed laws require, that the same may be equalized as near as possible.

GEO. DRINKER, WM. YEARON, Alexandria, 13th March, 1832. Assessors.

Extract from a Law of the Corporation relative to Assessments. &c

"The said Assessors shall, immediately after their appointment, priceed to value the houses and lots within the I mits of the Corporation, and to demand from the masters and mistresses of every family, lists of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in, their respective families; and also from every owner of taxable property, a list of such property. And if any master or mistress of a family, or any owner of taxable property, shall neglect or refuse to give in a list of all male tytheables belonging to, or residing in, his or her family, or other taxable property, within five days after the demand made thereof by any assessor, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars; and if any person whatsoever shall wilfully omit or misrepresent, in the list given in, any tythable or taxable property, or shall, in any other manner conceal the same from the knowledge of the assessors, the personso offending shail forfeit and pay double the amount of tke tax imposed on such tytheable or taxable property. Every merchant, shopkeeper, merhanic, or other person, having in his or her service or employment any clerk, journeyman, apprentice, or assistant, shall render an account of the same in his or her list of t theables, and shall be accountable for the capitation tax hereby imposed, in like manner, and under the sampenalties, as if such clerk, j urneyman, apprentice, or assistant, were a member of his or her family."

Section 4 of a Law passed March, 1851. Be it further enacted, that the assessors be, and they are hereby, authorized to require from every owner or possessor of household furniture, kept for use, an account of its aggregate value, at a fair market price, at the time of rendering such account; and a true list of all ground rents which may be payable to such per on or persons; and any such person or persons so required, and after being informed of the provisions of this section, refusing to render such account or such list of ground rents, or to give such information to the assessors as may enable them to make such valuation on such list of ground rents, he, she, or they, so of-fending, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dol lars; and in cases where the assessors have cause to suspect they have not received a fair estimate of furniture or list of ground rents, or such correct i for mation as may enable them to make a fair valuation of furnias may enable them to make a fair valuation of furni-ture or list of ground rents, they shall assess the value of such furniture or list of ground rents, according to the best of their knowledge and judment; and should the person so assed deem him or herself aggrieved, he or she shall have a right of sppeal to the Common Council."
